

If you could be any creature that lived in the ocean or on the coast, what would you be? Explain your reasons.	Make a boat that can float and successfully carry a number of Lego bricks. How many bricks could your boat hold?	Go to the beach, sit down and close your eyes. Make a list of all the different sounds you can hear.	Using papier-mache, construct a coastal cliff with caves and stacks.
Write your number bonds to 10 and 20. What's the same? What's different?	<h1>Anning Class</h1> <h1>Spring 1</h1> <h2>Home Learning Activities</h2> Colour in the box as you complete each activity!		Write a poem about the ocean or coastline. Remember to use good adjectives for describing.
Research the history of the Huers Hut in Newquay and make a fact file.			How to draw a seagull Easy How Draw a Seagull Tutorial
Collect a range of shells and pebbles and sort in to a variety of repeating patterns.	Wild card: An activity of your choice	Practice telling the time to O'clock and half past.	Create a graph to show the types and amount of creatures, shells etc in a rock pool.
Create an online safety poster.	Make a cake and weigh out the ingredients using scales. Can you read the scales?	Go on a 3d shape hunt around your house and list the shapes you find.	Thinking about your five senses, write a description about the ocean.